> Mrs. R. D. Angelica, of 712 North Maryland avenue, entertained Saturday in honor of the eighth birthday of her son, Robert, seven of his little friends: Ethel Sanders, Janet West, Dorothy Collum, Evelyn Chase, David Johnson, Henry Vorwerk and Howard Chase. Games were played during the afternoon, after which refreshments were served. The decorations were in red and white. A J. P. Harris beautiful bouquet of red dahlias formed the centerpiece.

> > Miss Nellie Warner returned home Saturday from a two weeks' visit to Mt. Hermon, in the Santa Cruz mountains, where she attended the summer conference of Christian Endeavorers. Many Endeavorers from all over the state were present and took part in the work. Other young people's organizations such as Baptist Young People and Epworth League, have been holding summer schools there for workers. Miss Ethel Preston is still at Mt. Hermon and will return the last of the week.

Earl Wilke, a former resident of Glendale for a number of years, during part of which time he conducted a dairy west of the Southern Pacific tracks between Colorado and Broadway, is now living in Welton, Ariz., on a 360-acre ranch, which is in the new reclamation district west of Yuma, which is to be irrigated from waters impounded by damming the Gila River. He has a driven well on the ranch that flows 1500 gallons a minute, he says. He and his family are in good health, he says, and enjoy life there in spite of the great

BETTER JUDGES

ORGANIZATION TO PEOPLE TO APPRECIATION OF JUDICIAL STANDARDS

Representative citizens of Glendale met this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, 347 North Brand Boulevard, and an organization to be known as The Movement for Better Judges in Los Angeles County, was formed. It is expected that officers will be chosen and the work of educating the voters of Glendale will be pressed by those who seek to show why certain of our Superior Court judges should not be returned to office.—Adv.

When He comes, it will be sudden and unexpected, as the flood came in the days of Noah.

The practical question: What shall we, as Christians, be doing about it? The Lord's answer is very clear.

First, watch, as a bride with everything in order, garments clean; not flirting with the world. Second, pray, 'Thy kingdom come." Third, lend a hand. Not like those who look out of a window with folded arms, but as busy husbandmen putting sickle into the harvest. Instead of gazing up into heaven, go out into the byways and hedges and constrain men to come in. Blessed is the servant whom the Lord when He cometh shall find so doing.

Fourth, we are to be ready, as a rule of life, not a spurt, but constantly. Watching, praying, working, be ye also ready. All signs point to His near approach. Let us live as in the light of the blessed fact, the Blessed
